MEDICINAL.

"THE TRIUMPH OF LOVE IS HAPPY, FRUITFUL MARRIAGE."

Every Man Who Would Know the Grand Truths, the Plain Facts, the New Discoveries of Medical Science as Applied to Married Life, Who Would Atone for Past Errors and Avoid Future Pitfalls, Should Scenre the Wonderful Little Book Called "Complete Manhood, and How to At-

"Here at last is information from a high medical source that must work wonders with this generation of men."

The book fully describes a method by which to attain full vigor and manly power.

A method by which to end all unnatural families on the system.

To cure nervoucness, lack of self-control, de-To cure nervoueness, lack of self-central, despondency, &c.

To exchange a juded and wern nature for one of brightness, broyancy and power.

To cure forever effects of excesses, overwork, worry, &c.

To give full strength, development and tone to every portion and errors for the body.

Age no barrier. Falture impossible. Two thousand references.

The book is parely medical and scientific, useless to curiosity seekers, invaluable to nach only who need it.

A despairing man, who had applied to us, soon after wrote:

"Well, I tell you that first day is one I'll never forget. I just bubbled with joy. I wanted to hug everybody and tell them yold self had died yesterday, and my new self was born to-day. Why didn't you tell rewent?"

And another thus:

when I lies way?"
And another thus:
"If you dumped a cart load of gold at my feet it would not bring such gladness into my life as your method has done."
Write to the ERIB MEDICAL COMPANY, Buffalo, N.Y., and ask for the little book called "COMPLETE MANHOOD." Refer to this paper, and the company promises to send this paper, and the company promises to send this paper, and the company promises to send this paper. this paper, and the company promises to to the book, in scaled envelope, without a marks, and entirely free, until it is well inteduced.

RIVALS TO THE SIAMESE TWINS .-At Lorain, O., on Monday, Mrs. Budd McPherson, wife of a Cleveland, Lo rain & Wheeling Railway conductor, gave birth to a most remarkable freak of nature. It was a double child or united twins, rivaling in some re-spects the famous Sismese twins. The children are both alive and now bid sir to reach the age of maturity. One is a boy and faces one way and the other a girl, and faces in the opposite direction. The union, which local obvicious regard as a vital link, occurs from a point a little above the boy's right shoulder, and extends nearly to right shoulder, and extends nearly to legs, four arms, four eyes—two looking in each direction, two mouths, but only one child lies on its face in such a way as to interfere with its breathing the other cries as if in distress. The boy twin is the stronger of the two, and takes nourishment as naturally as any other child; but the female has not yet taken any food, although it apparently feels no hunger, indicating that the boy oust take nourishment for both bedies. The mother is a woman 38 years of age, nd the mother of five bright and wellformed children. The parents feel very sensitive over this unexpected and undesirable notoriety. Bucklen's Arnica Salve.
